Artist Statement

I love colors and cool party light effects so I brought that energy into my art. I used a party photo for the background and added the flowing lines from my project proposal. Those lines show party vibes and give off the feeling of echo music with beats that start slow grow and shift through rhythms. I mixed colors, places and line thicknesses so the lines look lively and unpredictable.